

North Staffs Mind has an exciting opportunity for you to join our Staywell team!
The role is for a fully qualified Therapeutic Practitioner.

About Us

North Staffs Mind has been delivering a range of respected, client-focused and high-quality services for adults, children and young people in North Staffordshire since 1976. We pride ourselves on our relaxed and friendly atmosphere and our commitment to delivering high quality, client focused, professional services.

About the Project

You will work as part of the Staywell Service in our Hanley team and outreach venues, providing a combination of therapeutic interventions, signposting and guidance, face to face, online and by phone, for young people, care givers and professionals.

About You

We are looking for a fully qualified Counsellor with a real passion for supporting young people. You must demonstrate a good understanding of the challenges young people face in relation to their emotional well-being and mental health and you must have a proven track record of experience in working with young people in a therapeutic environment.

You should be committed to working with a multi-agency approach in order to achieve the best possible outcome for every young person you work with.

The Details

In return we offer a varied and rewarding role in a people-focused organisation that strives to improve the mental health and wellbeing of our local communities.

You will work remotely from home until current restrictions are reviewed but will be based at our Head Office in Hanley, Stoke-on Trent and in outreach venues around the city.
